CORE VALUES

- 3i
- Integrity
 - Innovation
 - Inclusiveness

My Dear Friends,

Wishing all our patrons the best and choicest blessings of the Lord.

Have we wondered why in a car there are three rearview mirrors, one in the center and two on either side? The reasoning is simple yet very important: Although the windshield gives us a view forward, it is these 3 rearview mirrors that help us balance our forward drive by giving us a sense of direction. Life is a lot like a vehicle, ever moving forward but keeps a tab on the way left behind as well. The view behind helps us introspect on (1) where we have done well and (2) where we could have done better especially over speed breakers, negotiating one's way through traffic and blocks. If the former (1) is more than the latter (2), it is indeed a good drive leading to a peaceful destination.

We at Don Bosco Vazhikaatti can peacefully acclaim now that we have come to the end of the year that we have completed our mission fairly well having done our introspections through our rearview mirrors. Our various activities in Training and Placement have been very well received by students, institutions, benefactors and even the society at large in all the places Don Bosco Vazhikaatti has lived the mission of our Founding Father, St. John Bosco who left us his message for the youth: "You are young. That's enough for me to love you".

The youth must step up and step forward from the shadows of self doubt into the light of everlasting confidence though spiritual enlightenment. We are also on the threshold of the happiest season the world has ever known – Christmas. This is the season of promise, hope, commitment, love and eternal goodness, of all good tidings where we are reminded of God's everlasting love for humanity. Christmas also reminds us at DBV of our endeavours to make life better and more holistic not only for the privileged few but for the vast underprivileged less fortunate youth in our country. This Christmas, also look back into your personal rearview mirrors and rekindle your relationship with anyone with whom you could have been better, especially those who look up to you like your parents, family, teachers and friends. God has blessed you so you can be a blessing to others, so create good and peaceful memories this year.

May the Child Jesus shower you with all His choicest blessings and help you to become that wonderful person you are destined to become.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Yours affectionately,

Fr. Andrews Stephen Raj, SDB
Director – Don Bosco Vazhikaatti
